▼ University of Huelva

Type of Organization:
University

Status:
Active

Description:
The University of Huelva was founded in 1993, aiming to provide quality teaching and research, as well as promoting economic, environmental and cultural developments in the city and province. The University committed to the region. Close links have been forged with local businesses, whereby students are offered work placements in order to facilitate their incorporation into the work force. The research conducted by the University has a strong impact and directly benefits our community. Staff is comprised of approximately one thousand lecturers and more than four hundred administrative and support staff. Almost 12,500 students attend the University of Huelva including about 1300 carrying out post graduate studies. Our unique environment combines with these features to make Huelva a distinctive university and a special place to be a student.
